Salvation Army Mission Statement

The Salvation Army, an international movement, is an evangelical part of the universal Christian church.

Its message is based on the Bible.

Its ministry is motivated by the love of God.

Its mission is to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ and to meet human needs in His name without discrimination.

DOING THE MOST GOOD™

Everyday Miracles

Prasilla. She knows she can go to The Salvation Army and get some food whenever her shelves get too low. When she comes, she is able to get things like vegetables, noodles, macaroni and cheese, meat or eggs, and personal products such as toilet paper, tooth paste, and whatever else we have on hand. On a daily basis, we are helping people with the bare necessities like food and clothing. She now attends church at the Corps.

Connie. She spent five days at The Salvation Army's Hidden Falls Camp last summer. During that week she made new friends, learned about nature, and also heard about Jesus. Her favorite part of the week was swimming, of course. Thirty five kids from Bloomington enjoyed a similar camp experience at little to no cost. Kids also come to the full 8-week long day camp so parents can keep their jobs while school is out.

James. Christmas is hard for a lot of families that come to The Salvation Army. James is the exception because he enjoys an annual visit from Santa in our Child Care Connection. Here he's well taken care of, regardless of his age, background or other factors. Many other children like James wake up Christmas morning to Angel Tree toys. Their Santa isn't just one jolly man, it's hundreds of compassionate people who donate toys to The Salvation Army.
